Puzzled, the boy took the sparrow to his uncle, Amiruddin Tyabji, a big game hunter, and asked him what kind of bird it was. His uncle did not know, but took the boy to the office of the Bombay Natural History Society.

When the boy was introduced to Mr. Millard, the honorary secretary of the Society. Millard was amused to find an Indian boy keen to know the kind of sparrow he had bagged. He took him around the room, showing the many varieties of stuffed birds preserved there.
